STUDENT GOVERNMENT

ACCOMPLISHES A LOT IN 1983-1984

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council for 1984 had many responsibilities. The more important of these were: organization of freshmen elections, homecoming activities, student council exchange day, and 1985 class elections. The student council did a remarkable job of maintaining school spirit and student involvement throughout the year.

Adv. Mr. Dan Jacobi, Tres. Holly Vasold, Pres. Brent Albrecht, Sec. Jane Niedzinski, V. Pres. Kathy Rogalski.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

1984 was definitely the seniors' year. The senior class council brought back many old traditions and even some new trends. The seniors kicked off the school year with the first dance. For the first time in Freeland's history, a live band was incorporated with a DJ. The results were fantastic. The senior class also returned to the old traditions of a class composite and class jerseys.

Tres. Lisa Ballien, Rep. Jill Zdebski, Sec. Jerry Fix, Rep. Dale Tumey, V. Pres. Dan McKinney, Pres. Sam Buchalter, Adv. Mr. Richard Hennink.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The junior class really had their work cut out for them this year. Their major goal was to put on a terrific prom that would linger on in the memories of everyone. In order to do this, they had a number of dances and fund raisers. One of the most successful dances of the year, the Halloween "Monster Bash", was put on by the junior class. A special thanks should be given to the junior class advisor, Ms. Brenda Moore — she did a fantastic job and offered much support.

Tres. Jill Anderson, Pres. Cindy Fix, Sec. Lisa Sheets, bottom: Rep. Margaret Decaire, Rep. Mary Beth Keenan, Adv. Ms. Brenda Moore.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

This year's sophomore class officers and representatives put forth a great effort in everything they did. Some major accomplishments were giving career seminars, and putting on a dance, and selling candy bars for their class. The sophomores also competed very closely with the seniors this year, coming second to them in spirit week and building an excellent float. The class of '86 had a productive and fun year.

Top: V. Pres Jenny Wirtz, Pres Jill Van Haaren, Adv. Mr. Gary Parsch, Tres. Kim Fink, Sec. Kelly Lincoln, Rep. Diane Duby, Rep. Karen Spaeth.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

The Freshman class of 1984 was quick to adjust to high school life. They learned what had to be done and did it. They started out with very little, but by selling key chains and putting on a dance they raised enough money to pay for future class projects. 1984 proved to be successful for the Freshmen class.

Pres. Tina Dougherty, V. Pres. Paul Knoerr, Sec. Renae Kragenbrink, Tres. Steve Webb, Rep. Anne Niedzinski, Rep. Jamie Kelly.

A SNEAK PEAK AT HOMECOMING

The night before Homecoming!

So what! He's my friend!

Our band, at their best!

Yes, he's our faithful friend and leader!

WHO WILL BE OUR QUEEN?

A moment to remember.

On Tuesday, October 12, 1983, Bridget Kasper was announced the Homecoming Queen in front of the whole student body during the Queen's Assembly. It was the first time the queen was announced during the assembly. Mary Ahlrich sang "Take Me to Heart", and Holly Vasold dedicated "The Rose" to Bridget. Mark Parsons, lead vocalist of the band Bottom Line, performed "Hot Girls in Love."

Leslee Swanson and Derek Kabobel.

Mary Ahlrich sings for our Queen.

On September 21, four girls from the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, and six girls from the senior class were nominated for the 1983 Homecoming Court. They were: Freshmen Denise Vanest, Amey Walker, Renae Kragenbrink, and Erin Crampton; Sophomores Kelly Lincoln, Leslee Swanson, Kristy Spence, and Laura Clark; Juniors Margaret DeCaire, Karen Wegner, Chris Karow, and Holly Nietzke; Seniors Martha Laviolette, Jane Niedzinski, Bridget Kasper, Melissa Kasper, Beth Pettenger, and Bridget DeNardo. On September 23, two girls from the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes and three girls from the senior class were elected for the court. Freshman court members were Denise Vanest and Amey Walker; Sophomore class court members were Kelly Lincoln and Leslee Swanson. Junior court members were Margaret DeCaire and Karen Wegner, and seniors Martha Laviolette, Jane Niedzinski, and Bridget Kasper. Everyone in the school then voted for one of the three seniors to be queen on October 4. Then Bridget was announced queen at the Queen's Assembly on October 10.

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT

Anyone for a picnic?

Monday, October 10, was the first day of a spirit-filled homecoming week. During the week, students from each grade competed to see what class had more school spirit. The competition was close, but the seniors managed to hold off the sophomores, and take possession of the spirit jug. The categories were: Fun in the Sun Day, Dress-up Day, Mix and Match Day, Beat the Huskies Day, and Green and White Day.

You should see the other guy!!

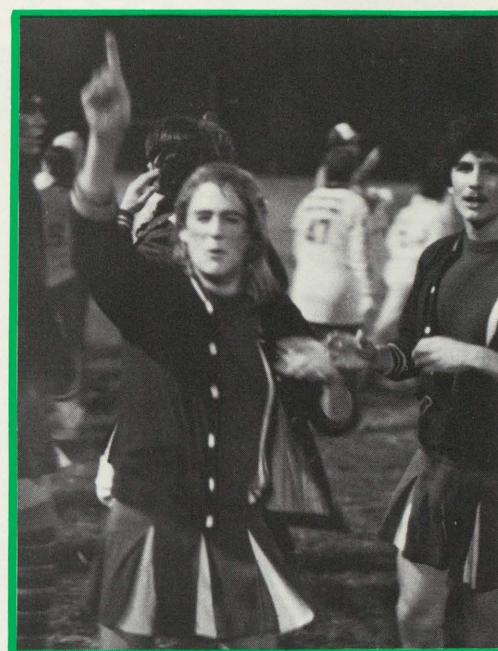

Fun in the sun!

SENIORS VS. JUNIORS

Seniors T. Quinn, J. Coeur, B. Bell, C. Flattery, and A. Fleser celebrate in the rain.

Dale Tumey knows who's number one!

Jeff Bluemlein cheers the seniors onto victory!

The Juniors had more fun than success at the powder puff game ...

The Powder Puff game on Oct. 12, had a good turnout even though there was heavy rain throughout the night. The game was a great success for the seniors, winning with a score of 42-0. The seniors in yellow jerseys were tough and were really good players. The Juniors, in green, were high spirited, but couldn't match the mighty seniors. Halftime entertainment was provided by the junior and senior cheerleaders who were mud wrestling and throwing water balloons on the field. Also everyone's favorite, Ray "Boom Boom" Rapin, was crowned Powder Puff Queen. Beautiful Ray was congratulated by the whole senior team.

PRECIOUS MOMENTS

Leslee's father proudly walks her down the field.

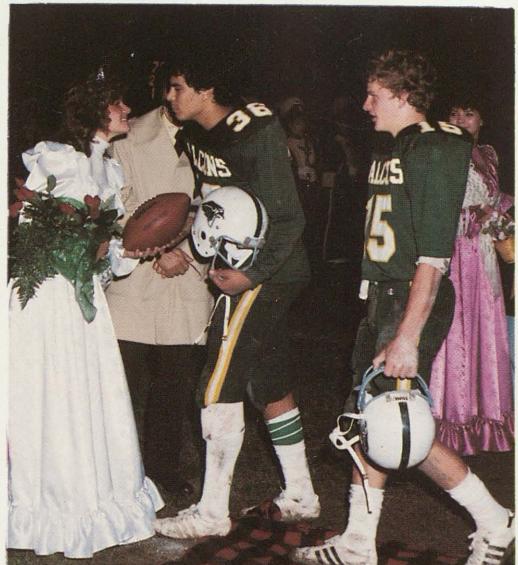

Halftime activities began with the marching band performing a few songs. The band then formed an aisle on the 50 yd. line for the Queen and her court to walk down. All of the court members were escorted by their fathers. Finally the Queen, Bridget Kasper, walked down the field, escorted by her mother and father. Last year's Queen, Kelly Miller, then crowned Queen Bridget. Varsity football captains Steve Gordon and Steve Ramirez presented her with a football ending the halftime festivities.

Bridget's moment of glory.

Our queen and her court watch the game together.

The football captains award Bridget with a football from the team.

HERE COME THE FALCONS

The seniors' winning float

J.V. cheerleaders: All peped up for the game!

The Homecoming Parade on Oct. 14, before the game was a success. The girls on the Homecoming Court rode through the parade on the tops of Corvettes.

The parade also showed the creative talents of many students. A contest was held among the different classes for their floats. The senior float, which was a giant skunk, reading on the sides "Huskies Stink", came in first place. Then, in second place, was the sophomore float: "Cream of Husky Soup". In third place came the freshman float: a giant falcon on a huge Husky Puppy. The FHS marching band, Pom Pon girls, varsity and J.V. cheerleaders and many others in the community were also in the parade.

Kelly Lincoln riding in the parade.

Mr. Compton and Holly Vasold "cruising" around before the game.

FALCON FOOTBALL: GOING FOR THE WIN

The Homecoming Game was against Breckenridge. Best players of the game, as stated by Coach Jim Hacker, were Darrin Morman (Defensive nose guard), Steve Ramirez (Line backer), and Jeff Chatiney (Offensive line). At Offensive end, Jim McCarthey made three catches in a row at the end of the game.

Freeland fumbled a punt in the fourth quarter, and Breckenridge scored. The touchdown was made in the last fifty-three seconds of the game. The Falcons had the ball down on the Huskies fourteenth yard line, in the fourth quarter, and did not score. Freeland had two different opportunities to score and did not cash in on either one. Breckenridge won the game seven to zero.

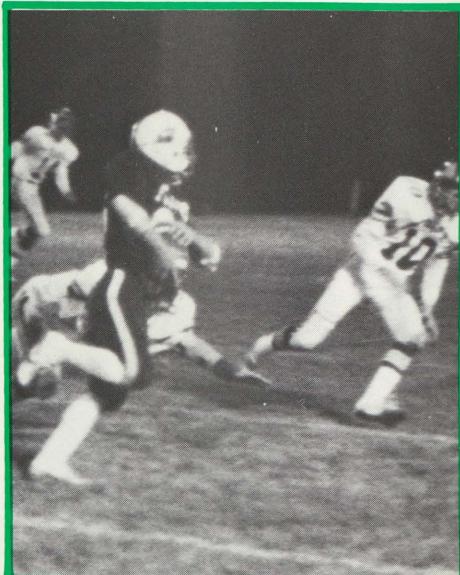

Mr. Hacker, head coach, was helped this year by Mr. Oczepek, who was Defensive coach, and Mr. Doyle who was Specialty teams and End coach.

The proud stand out!

DON'T LET IT END HOMECOMING 83

Scott Webb and Teresa Quinn: Good friends come in pairs.

Carrie Jakeway and Mark Berner.

The homecoming dance was put on by the Student Council this year. The cafeteria was decorated uniquely with stars and moons of silver and metallic blue. They featured music by the disc-jockey, R & R. During the queen's dance, the court members and their escorts danced to the song "Don't Let It End" by Styx. That song, "Don't Let It End," was the theme this year. The dance was a great success. It was a night to remember.

Heat of the moment.

Trying to not let it end.

JOURNALISM CLASS

This year marked the return of the student newspaper. The "Falcon Focus" was advised by Mr. Thomas F. Cole. Editor-in-chief was Connie Cox. Page editors were: Mitch Hock and Jim Candey (Sports), Kelly Lincoln (Entertainment), Sheree Vasold (Front Page), and Connie Cox (Opinions, Features, and Community News). The "Focus" was a monthly paper that was distributed to the community, as well as the student body.

Mr. Compton, principal, commented, "It was tremendous to have a student newspaper back in publication this year. The effort was well-received and the student and community response was super. We look forward to maintaining the quality publication that was initiated this year."

Mr. Cole expressed his views, "I was very pleased with the effort of the staff. It gave me a sense of responsibility and pride to be part of reconstituting a much-needed program."

Sue McCallum takes a break from her deadline.

PASSES PROCEDURES

Advisor Mr. Cole splits his time between Kriss Carl (Yearbook) and Connie Cox (Newspaper).

The 1983-84 yearbook staff worked very hard. This year was the first time that yearbook was a class and not an after school activity. It proved to be successful. New ideas for the yearbook included: dedicating the book to the 1984 Seniors, reintroducing the theatre department, making our own cover, making our own division pages, and full page team records.

The yearbook staff was as follows:

Amy Fleser — Co-editor
Kriss Carl — Layout Editor
Leslie Williams — Designer
Jane Salter — Designer
Kim Listvan — Designer
Cheryl Lown — Designer
Sanford Buchalter — Designer

Joanna Whitman struts her stuff at the C.M.U. Band Day.

The Freeland Band, under the directorship of Mr. Shepard and Senior Drum Major Dale Tumey, has established a reputation of excellence. The Marching Falcons have been featured in the Zilwaukee County Festival Parade, and at the CMU Band Day; they also provide entertainment at the home football and basketball games. During the year, the bands put on winter and spring concerts.

The FHS bands perform — receiving top honors at both District and State levels of competition year after year. Some of the band members responsible for this were chosen to perform in the State-Wide Honors Band (a group of 100 of the finest H.S. musicians). Those members were: Beth Bell, Kelly Thompson, and Jerry Fix. Kelly Thompson was also chosen to perform with the MSBOA 50th Anniversary Honors Band as one the top French Hornists in the State of Michigan.

We, Amy Lynn Fleser and Samuel Bennett Buchalter, with the consent of the entire yearbook staff, have decided to dedicate this 1983-84 yearbook to the class of '84. Most often a yearbook is dedicated in the memory of a classmate who has passed away. However, the class of '84 has been very fortunate and has not lost a member of their class. We feel we should dedicate this book in the memory of the fun-loving seniors. Their presence here has helped make '84 what it was ... An unforgettable journey.

Best of Luck Always ...

VARSITY FALCONS HAVE A

The Football Team, coached by Mr. Jim Hacker and assisted by coach Dave "O" Oczepek, was a team that deserved credit for always trying and maintaining a sense of pride even though they failed to win most of their games.

The team started out the year with Steve Gordon at Quarterback, but as the season went on, Steve switched to a Running Back where he did an exceptional job. The team M.V.P. Don Hemesberg played with a lot of skill and determination. He truly proved that he was worthy of the title of Most Valuable Player. The team had several sophomores who contributed: Derek Kabobal and Dan Stahl. The team may not have won the most games, but they were definitely worthy of the support of the FREELAND FANS!

J.V. HAS A GREAT SEASON

The 1983 Junior Varsity Falcon Football Players had an exceptionally good season. The J.V. team, led by sophomore quarterback Dave Dennis, won 8 of the 9 games. However, due to a technicality, they had to forfeit one of them. This gave them a respectable 7-2-0 Record. The offense was a powerful and quick-striking group. They had two quick running backs: Dave Roenicke and Chris Bohn, and one Power Back: Pat Wisniewski. The defense led by Nose Guard Pat Wisniewski, Linebacker Chris Bohn, and Safety Jamie Metiva led their opponents through many scoreless games.

Tim was also voted to the CML All-Conference first team. Tim with the help of his brother, Tom Frost (who was voted to the CML All-Conference 2nd team), led the Falcon Runners to a third place finish in the Conference Meet.

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL:

TAKES C.M.L. TITLE FOR FOURTH YEAR IN A ROW

Coach Dave Franz

The 1983-84 Boys' Varsity Basketball Team was a team that at the beginning of the season little was expected from. But through the hard work of their coach Dave Franz and the dedication of all the players, the team came through and proved that they were champions.

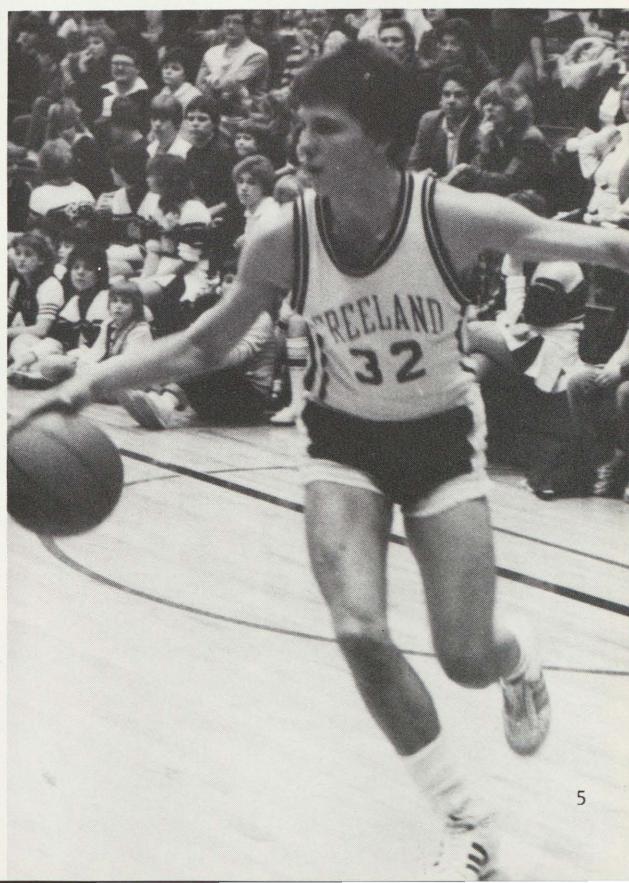

The team posted a 17 and 3 record; their 3 losses came early in the season. After the guys matured into a strong team, the Falcons had a 14 game winning streak and had a perfect season in the C.M.L. The team was for the fourth straight year C.M.L. champions. They were also chosen by the Saginaw News as All-Area Class C Best Team.

The team was led by the talents of All-State center Jon Bow. Jon was The Midland Daily News scoring leader and was also voted to the C.M.L. All League First Team, along with Senior Dave Gould. Dave, who was responsible for controlling the ball, also kept the team in more than a few games with his tremendous outside shot. The team also had a lot of help from Senior Steve Ramirez, and sophomores Jeff and Jason Yates. Those three were also voted as honorable mention players in the C.M.L.

JV BASKETBALL IMPROVES THROUGHOUT YEAR.

In 1983-84 the Boy's Junior Varsity Basketball Team was a team that took the time to develop the talents of the players. They were coached by Dave Oczepek and led by sophomores Dave Dennis and Chris Bohn. Freeland has built a tradition of winning basketball teams and part of the reason for this tradition of excellence is that the Varsity and Junior Varsity coaches cooperate and teach the boys how to play basketball first, and then how to win later. This was the case in 1983-84; the team started out slowly but as the talents of the team developed so did their record. The team finished with 12 wins and 8 losses.

1984 may not have proven to be the most fortuitous year for the Freeland High School Wrestling team, as a group, but individually the team's members had some impressive accomplishments. The team was Co-captained by Juniors Jeff Maxwell, and John Smillie. Jeff was voted team MVP. Other individual accomplishments were: most improved wrestler, Chris Fox, Coach's Award, John Smillie, and Rookie of the year, Mike McCallum.

VB TEAM SPIKES IT 'GOOD'

The 1984 Freeland Girls Varsity Volleyball team was a team that was considered one of the finest in the Saginaw area and one of the best teams in the CML. The team won all but one game in the Central Michigan League. The team which has built a tradition of excellence over the past years was coached by Judd Terwilliger and led by seniors Sue Miller, Wendy Seaver, Sheree Vasold, and Tammy Ballien. Sue and Wendy were both selected to the CML All-Conference 1st team, while Sheree, Tammy, and juniors Amy Rutledge, and Lisa Hudson were selected as Honorable Mentions in the Conference.

The 1984 Junior Varsity girls' Volleyball team was a cohesive group of girls. They learned the fundamental skills and strategies of volleyball from their coach Joy Kreager. With these newly learned skills and the natural talent of those Freshmen and Sophomore girls, the team went on to post a respectable six and six season.

The team, which in 12 years of existence has won 99 dual meets and lost only 7, were the 1983 State Champions. With the returning freshmen and sophomores they were again favored to be a dominate power in state competition.

The team, led by junior transfer student and team captain Lori Stanick (voted team captain by her peers) finished well in the early season, but due to injuries and sickness they had a rough stretch. They regrouped and came back to win the Regional Meet and went on to place a very respectable 4th in the state of MI.

Lori Stanick, who received the honor of being selected to the Detroit News All-State First Team, was also voted by her teammates as the team's MVP. Mrs. Buchalter, who has been the coach of the Gymnastic Team since it was formed, was also nominated by the National High School Coaches Association for the Coach of the Year in the field of Special Sports.

THEATRE RETURNS

This year the Theatre Department was reintroduced to the High School. They performed Joseph Kesselring's play "ARSENIC AND OLD LACE". The play was directed by the theatre department's own Mr. Tom Cole. The play was about two old women who would invite people to board in their house and they would serve them Elderberry wine. The wine would be laced with arsenic and it would kill them. Their bodies would be buried in the cellar and funeral services would be given by the two old women. The play was performed for three nights (March 15-17) and was a smash.

NOBLEMANS 1984

Wendy Schroeder and Pollie Scheon at Noblemans Dance.

The Senior Class of 1984 revived the traditional Nobelman's dance. The Nobelman's Dance gives the girls of Freeland a chance to vote for the young men that they feel are the most charming and handsome from their respective grades onto the King's court. The seniors girls nominated three young men from which the 1984 Senior King was chosen.

The Court members were Freshmen Paul Knoerr, and Mike Chapman, Sophomores, Derek Kabobel, and Rob Pettenger, Juniors John Dinsmoore, and Matt Feinauer. The Senior Dukes were John Lawler, and Dean Edwards, and Steve Ramirez was crowned the King.

The King was announced at the dance, which took place on April 6. Music was provided by Almost Live. The dance proved to be a genuine success.

CO-OPS VIEW THE REAL THING

The co-op program is not new, but this past year proved to be one of the most successful yet. Ten seniors participated in the program. Eight were involved in the technological program and two were secretarial co-ops.

Two, one technical and one secretarial, worked at Dow Corning; the rest were employed by Dow Chemical. The experience the students received was worth more than the actual payment they received. Everyone felt their job has helped them prepare for future careers.

Missy Kasper worked at Dow Corning as a secretarial co-op in the Dow Corning Corporate Center. She worked in the patent department doing word processing, microfilming and related work.

Kevin Hughes worked at Dow Corning as a technical co-op at the Midland Plant. He worked in the analytical department in the Material Characterization group finding densities, viscosities, vapor pressures, and related type work.

Marcia Rose worked at Dow Chemical in the Dow Corporate Center. She was a secretarial co-op in the communications department. Her duties included the mail run, and working the computer and helping with customer financial reports.

Teresa Egan worked at Dow Chemical at Larkin Labs. She worked in customer service analyzing resins.

Sarah Bank worked at Dow Corning at the Dow Corning Corporate Center. She tested samples from research.

Amy Fleser worked at Dow Chemical at the Dow Corporate Center. She worked in the coatings and resins group testing properties of latex paper coatings.

John Fowler worked at Dow in the computer operations department. He did cost graphing and analyzed cost data and helped with the maintenance of the computers.

Joe Manning worked in Central Research at Dow Chemical. He worked with genetically engineered microbiological products.

MOONLIGHT AND ROSES

Some people could dance all night.

Bill and Tracy sharing a moment of romance

Chris and Dean and Don and Chris enjoying the evening.

Tom Frost, Sheree Vasold, and Jane Salter with their dates.

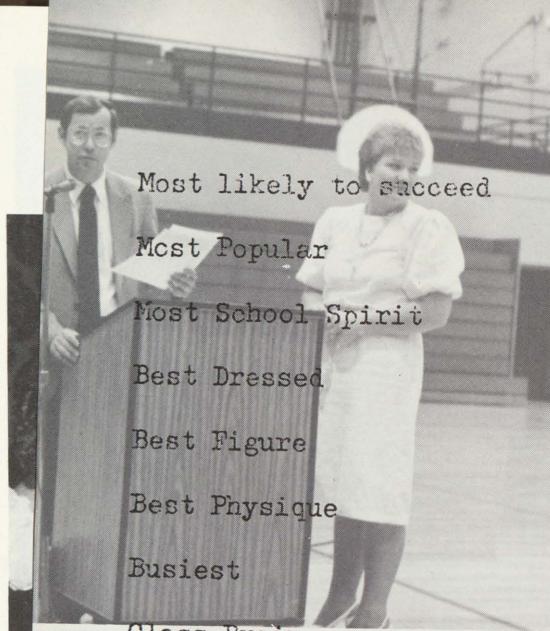

Holly Vasold and Beth Pettenger looking pretty at prom.

John Fowler, Brent Albrecht, Dale Tumey, Mitch Hock, and Jeff Metiva: the Gentleman of the Evening.

"MOONLIGHT AND ROSES":
That was the theme of the 1984 Prom held at the Sheraton Fashion Square in the Grand Ballroom. The music was provided by "Out of the Blue." It turned out to be an elegant affair with most of the guys in tuxedos and almost all of the girls in long formal dresses. There were roses on the tables and moonlight in the sky, and the dancing went on into the "morning." Most people, when asked about Prom, said that it was truly a night to remember.
